"VOLCANO" MARSHALL IN JAIL.

William H. Marshall, at one time editor and proprietor of the Honolulu Volcano, is, according to the latest advice, in jail in Manila charged with treason. Marshall conspired severely the rule of the United States Commission, particularly with regard to appointments of Filipino members, who, Marshall wrote, were notoriously corrupt and had been exalted to the highest positions. A meeting of the members of the press in Manila, which is said to have been attended largely by men of other professions, appointed a committee to ask the commission not to continue the proceedings. A cablegram was also sent to President Roosevelt. The commission replied that the charges had been made against the commission by the editors, who would now have to prove them. By the last advice it was expected that judgment and punishment would be deferred until the arrival of Governor Taft who was expected in a few days.

GOVERNOR DOLE IS SUSTAINED

HE HAS THE HEARTY RESPECT AND SUPPORT OF THE ADMINISTRATION.

AN OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT BY ROOSEVELT.

The Governor Appears Before The Senate Committee on Pacific Islands.
Judge Little's Candidacy Collapsed.

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The following official statement was made at the White House today: "The President, after making careful investigation and hearing as many men as possible, and hearing from others, has come to the conclusion that Governor Dole's course has been such as to warrant his continuance as Governor of Hawaii and entitle him to the respect and heartly support of the Administration.
The Governor was a visitor at the White House today and said he would go to Boston for a short visit and in about two weeks would sail for home."

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The Senate Committee on Pacific Islands and Ports today heard Governor Dole and other Hawaiians on two bills pending before the committee. Governor Dole and Senator George R. Carter spoke in favor of the bill for the apportionment of Senators in Hawaii and Delegate Wilcox and Edgar Caypless opposed it. Governor Dole spoke against the bill granting right of way to the Hawaiian Ditch Company, saying the legislation was unnecessary.

The Advertiser publishes the following dispatch from its Washington correspondent: WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15.—President Roosevelt's announcement, retaining Dole and giving him the administration's hearty endorsement, causes great rejoicing here.
Governor Dole was at the White House Sunday night for his first interview.
Judge Little's candidacy collapsed after the President met Little. Mr. Haywood gives Governor Dole a grand dinner Monday next. Many notables are attend.

ACROSS THE WATERS

LONGEST WIRELESS SEA TALK RECORDED.

Kaiser Wilhelm And Lucania Hold Converse When Many Miles Apart—Practical Utility of System.

Capt. Hogenmann of the North German Lloyd steamship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, and the longest wireless sea talk on record with the Cunarder Lucania on a recent trip to Bremen from New York. He says that the Marconi apparatus on both ships worked unusually well. This he attributes partly to the fact that the Kaiser's operator Herr Kronen, was formerly on the Lucania, and the Lucania's operator was once on the Kaiser. Each thoroughly understands the peculiarities of both instruments. The ships held aerial converse for nearly three days, or until they were about half way across the ocean.

The Lucania sailed three hours before the big Kaiser, on Dec. 14. Off the Hook, when the Cunarder was sixty miles ahead, the two ships began to exchange news. The signalling was kept up all night long. At daybreak the next day, Sunday, the ships were in sight of each other. At 2 p. m. the Kaiser passed the Lucania, four miles to the southward.

Just after nightfall on Sunday the lights of neither ship were visible from the other. They were still in touch telegraphically. At noon on Monday the liners exchanged positions and their commanders found that they were forty miles apart. Early in the evening, off the Banks, the Kaiser ran into a thick fog. She struck into clear weather later and her Marconi man sent this message to the ship astern:

Twenty-five miles east of Banks.
Clear weather.

The Cunarder thus acknowledged the receipt of the despatch:

Thanks. Am still in the fog.
The liners were then sixty miles apart. During the night the clicking aboard the Kaiser grew fainter and fainter, and finally, when there was about eighty-five miles of sea between the ships the instruments stopped working.

On the return trip to New York, while in mid-ocean, the Kaiser passed but did not sight the Kronprinz, her sister ship, bound east. They swapped positions, and passengers sent messages across forty miles of water. They were in communication for two hours.

Capt. Hogenmann said that on a previous trip when the revolving light aboard the Nantucket lightship was out of order, he sighted what he surmised was the lightship. One of the young officers doubted it as he saw two fixed lights instead of the revolving one.

"Well," said the captain, "we'll soon find out," and he ordered the Marconi operator to project this inquiry into the air:

"Have you two fixed lights?"
The young officer was satisfied after this answer had been transmitted to him.

"We have; the other light was broken."

Capt. Hogenmann says that messages he received from the Lucania were delivered at the Lizard station and sent to their destinations, reaching them before the Lucania got to port. The Kaiser also notified the North German Lloyd office at Bremerhaven when she was about fifty-five miles from that place when she would arrive at Bremen.—N.
Y. Sun.

HANNA'S CANDIDACY.

Mr. Hanna's continued speeches on capital and labor, with the most ardent sympathy for the wage earners expressed, rather stimulate the theory that he has a notion of being a candidate for the presidency. His address at the Ohio society banquet in New York Saturday evening is the latest. Whether the laboring men are warming up to Uncle Mark must be determined later.
He certainly did great work for Mitchell and the coal miners in their strike during the campaign of 1890, but the next year he failed to support Shaffer and the steel workers.—Springfield Republican.
